Target Audience: This course is intended for participants at the beginning or intermediate level.

Format: This class will combine lecture and seminar formats, over Zoom. Student participation is encouraged. PCC courses include small group discussions which require participants to read and synthesize the materials presented. PCC faculty ensure that gaps in knowledge are addressed.

Description: These 12 seminars are designed to introduce clinicians to some of the challenges of psychotherapeutic work with children and their families.

Richard Bromfield's Doing child and adolescent psychotherapy (2nd ed.) will be one of the main required texts that will be used to orient this course. Students should purchase a copy.

Course Syllabus: TBA

Training Program Credit: Students who successfully complete this course can earn elective credit in the training programs that require elective hours.

Continuing Education Credit: At the end of the course, participants must complete the evaluation form to receive continuing education credit. The instructor(s) have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies to disclose.

About the Instructor:

Paul Brinich, Ph.D., trained at the University of Chicago, the Langley Porter Institute (University of California at San Francisco), the Anna Freud Centre (London), and the Psychoanalytic Center of the Carolinas (Chapel Hill, NC). He is a past president of the Association for Child Psychoanalysis and the North Carolina Psychoanalytic Society. An emeritus professor in the Departments of Psychology and Psychiatry of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Dr. Brinich has consulted with public elementary schools and the Lucy Daniels Center for Early Childhood (Cary, NC). He served for a decade as a senior editor of the Psychoanalytic Study of the Child. Retired from clinical practice, he consults with clinicians and programs regarding their work with children, adolescents, and adults. Dr. Brinich is particularly interested in adoptees and their families (biological and adoptive).
